2. The inventions listed as Groups I-V do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Art Unit: 2886

- i. Groups I and II are distinct inventions because Group I is directed to making an object of value secure, while Group II is directed to the structure of a security element.
